

Red Oak Camp

Riding Instructor Job Description

Purpose of Job:

Join Red Oak Camp for the summer by teaching lessons Acting as an instructor at one of the area's most private farms. Chincapin Camp is full of tradition and built on a foundation of English Riding.

Accountabilities: You will be accountable for, but not limited to:

Essential Job Functions

- Equine Functions

- Complete assigned responsibilities while at the barn, with proper & safe use of equipment
- Herd management support by identifying changes, injuries, illnesses, or other needs of the horse with direct notification to the Equestrian Director
- Support the Horseback Riding Instructors in providing assistance before, during, and after lessons with knowledge appropriate to assigned responsibilities
- Follow curricula and lesson plans that allow for progression of activities as assigned by the Equestrian Director

More on next page ->

Red Oak Camp

Riding Instructor Job Description

Desired Qualifications

- Minimum riding level of Advance Beginner in an english discipline such as Eventing, Jumping, Dressage.
- Experience in horse care including turnout/turnin, feeding, stall cleaning
- Lift and carry a minimum of 60lbs, capable of walking long distances and lifting/carrying/bending frequently
- Experience teaching or working with children preferred
- At least 18 years of age
- Self motivation and openness to learning & professional growth
- Professional demeanor as a representative of the camp
- Solid foundation in time management and problem solving
- Ability to work within a flexible work environment
- Work within a team and collaborative environment
- Support Red Oak Camps' mission, vision, values, and history

